

2001 Ben Hur Open Regatta

Sept. 29/30, 2001

Etobicoke Yacht Club

Etobicoke, Ontario, Canada

ORCA Open event, Hosted by Fleet 183

 Rave hydrofoils are welcomed and loved at this event.

"Speed provides the only one genuinely modern pleasure" - Aldous Huxley
"Today is a good day to die" - Klingon proverb

Take a step across the Line of Death. Race or die at the Ben Hur Open.

Winner takes the coveted Kaddafi cup. Leave behind all notions of civilization and polite society.

The laws of Canada and common sense are not applicable. This is a hull-borne homicide, watery wickedness, and peril galore.

Kiss transom, sucker. This is a savage apocalypse, a brutal Darwinian selection of the King of the Cats. The watery arena of speed awaits.

RULES

1. All boats must have at two or three hulls, at least at the start
2. No large calibre handguns
3. No flaming arrows
4. No sissies

Oh yes, and we are doing decorate the boat, decorate yourself, this event is to have fun! Sail on costumes, party in costumes, bring spears, swords (single and double edged), daggers, sling shots, torpedoes, the theme is warriors. Silly, we must be silly.... Dinner and party at the main clubhouse Saturday evening. Bring your dancing shoes.

In the event that the weather is too bad to race, we will do a 2 day party, or as long as we can last!

WARNING: Arja and Karen-Ann are making that famous rum punch.
